Uttarakhand Revisit

Fellows with Mrs. Pratibha, Mr. Raman Saran and Acharya Naresh Sharma in Rishikesh

Progressing towards the Uttarakhand Youth Conference, four of the Fellows visited schools, colleges and Sanskrit universities in Rishikesh to register students for the conference. The 9-day visit was a great learning for the team. With a lot of opportunities to speak to students, the team could polish their oratory and people skills.

Fellowship Completes a Month

As the Fellows marked one month of their inaugural stay at the LMAD Fellowship home, a small tea party was hosted by the Fellows to express their gratitude to Viral Bhai and LMAD for this opportunity. The Fellows reflected on their journey until then and critically analyzed their learnings and shortcomings; everyone looked ahead positively to take the work of LMAD to newer horizons.

Interaction with Mr. Kunal Sood

Mr. Kunal Sood is a TED Resident, Forbes Impact Icon, and an alumnus of institutions such as Kellogg School of Management and the Parson School of Design. With his plethora of academic achievements, the Fellows could deeply connect with him. The meeting was fruitful as Mr. Kunal shared about his journey and lifestyle in the United States where he currently resides.
